We received your package today, along with the letter, and we truly appreciate your generosity and for keeping us in mind. Your letter was spot on and I'm glad that there are still some patriots left in America that have not forgotten our foundations and moral underpinnings that make us such a great nation. The enemy can sometimes be hard to identify in our current engagement(s) but the fact that we are at war with an ideology and a hatred aimed at our way of life is undeniable. I was unable to check out your website on a government computer but will peruse it the first chance I get on a morale connection. Thanks again for keeping us in mind. God bless.
